ABOUT

Indonesia is a member of the G-20 major economies. The country's economy is mixed with the private and public sectors having equivalent importance. The Indonesian economy is the world's 16th largest by nominal GDP and the 8th largest by GDP at PPP. With a population of 250 million people the government is focus on the country's growth. The progress of the construction and building materials sector includes the completion of a number of megaprojects, such as bridges, railways and power stations.

Where stone meets ocean, find nature's potential through, Jakarta Stone Fair. Home to the world's 16th largest economy, Indonesia is booming thanks to the country's domestic consumption and productivity growth. The country also has a young population and is quickly urbanizing, which is powering the growth in income. As stone industry in on rise, this is a perfect opportunity to enter the market not only for Indonesia, but also for south Asia.
